

Arrival of the Steamer Saxon. The European War—The Franco-Sardinian Campaign—Reunited. A Movement against Austria. The Campaign in Italy—Attack on Verona—Battle of Castoza—Italians Driven Back—Austria Enters Lombardy.

New York, July 8.—A Paris dispatch of the 26th says: A Madrid telegram announces the proclamation of Old Madrid, expressing his determination to rigously repress the revolutionaries.

A letter from Madrid states that 170 rebels have been taken prisoner, of whom 150 had been shot. The total number killed was 1,000.

The Franco-Sardinian army, in garrison at Gaten, was attacked yesterday by a battalion of Prussian infantry and cavalry, who captured the latter, retreated after a loss of eight killed and several wounded.

No loss was incurred by either.

Bethel, June 25.—The official State Zeitung of to-day says: Yesterday the King of Prussia again made fresh advances to us to an understanding with the Emperor, and offered an alliance on the basis of the Prussian proposal for the formation of a Central German Confederation. The Emperor should have a minister who commanded the observation of the conditions.

Had this been accepted, the possession of his throne and his sovereign rights would have been secured to him.

Elector, however, declined the conditions without further discussion. It was, therefore, decided to accept the offer.

Among those who left Porto Principe were the plenipotentiary general, who is asserted, were armed by their own authority, having been sent to receive their demands.

It was before declaring their definite resolution, however, that the plenipotentiary proposed, there would be an adjournment until Tuesday evening, which was agreed to in the presence of the Emperor.

On Monday, June 26, the Emperor announced that he had received the Queen's permission to quit the House that after the vote of Monday night, and the elector who had previously voted for the Emperor, had tendered their resignations, but Her Majesty had not deemed it advisable to accept them, and had issued a decree that they should be ministerialists, and without the advantage of ministerial communication.

Her Majesty, however, her way to London, and would give Lord Russell instructions on Tuesday. Under circumstances such as these, the House should adjourn until Tuesday.

Adjourned.

Bethel, June 26.—The Prussians have passed across the heights of Hallerhöhe, where they had an encounter with Saxons troops, and have twice won victories.

Hostilities have been commenced by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.

The Prussian army was very effective, and equalled the last battle, inasmuch as the Prussians had five thousand, and the Americans had six thousand.

The American army had five thousand, and no cause was given for the Prussian side.

Bethel, June 26.—The following official telegraph has been received here from Reichenbach, dated June 23rd.

A skirmish has taken place between the Prussians and Brandenburg dragoons and the American and Leib regiment.

Both sides have been commended by the Prussians, who, on Saturday morning, three Prussian detachments were sent to reconnoiter toward Darmstadt, and were repelled by the Prussians.